New Maguindanao office expands Coop reach in Mindanao

To further broaden its service and benefit accessibility for its members, the AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative (AFPFC MPC) officially opened its newest satellite office (SO) in Awang, Maguindanao, on March 27, 2025.

Strategically located at Stall #11, RAD Arcade 3, Awang, Datu Odin Sinsuat, Maguindanao, the AFPFC MPC Maguindanao SO is poised to serve local Kamay-Ari in and around the Cotabato area.

The Maguindanao SO opening ceremony was led by the AFPFC MPC Chairman of the Board, MGEN RIZALDO B LIMOSO AFP (Ret), and Members of the Board, together with Guest of Honor, MGEN DONALD M GUMIRAN, Commander of the 6th Infantry Division (ID), PA, as represented by COL MANUEL LEO Q GADOR, Chief of Staff, 6ID, PA.

By opening the new Maguindanao office, AFPFC MPC marks the establishment of its 25th satellite office location.

In his message, Chairman Limoso highlighted the importance of enhanced member accessibility of AFPFC MPC's benefits and services through the expanded service reach of the new Maguindanao office.

"Ito pong pag-inaugurate natin dito is a testament to our commitment na palaguin at paramihin ang ating mga satellite office to better serve our members," Chairman Limoso said.

COL GADOR then followed with the Guest of Honor's message, congratulating AFPFC MPC for achieving a milestone in the opening of the Maguindanao office, positioning its services closer to active AFP personnel and pensioners.

"AFPFC MPC has always been a strong partner in ensuring the financial well-being of our soldiers," COL GADOR shared.

"Now, with this new satellite office, the troops here at Camp Siongco and nearby areas will no longer need to travel far to access the services. This is a huge step in improving their morale and their welfare," he further added.

As the fifth satellite office in Mindanao, the establishment of the Maguindanao SO signifies a milestone in expanding the Cooperatives' reach in the Mindanao region.

AFPFC MPC is scheduled to open more satellite offices and help desks throughout the country as part of its continued expansion efforts.

Annual Regular General Assembly held without hitch

AFPFC MPC celebrates Cooperative milestones at the Annual Regular General Assembly

The AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative (AFPFC MPC) successfully held its Annual Regular General Assembly and Election of Officers (ARGAMEO) last March 14, 2025, at the Dimalupig Hall, AFP Commissioned Officers Club in Camp General Emilio Aguinaldo, Quezon City.

An annual opportunity to review and celebrate its achievements accomplished throughout the past year, the ARGAMEO was formally opened by AFPFC MPC Vice Chairman COL FELIPE P VICENCIO PAF (Ret).

In his opening remarks, Vice Chairman Vicencio emphasized the key roles to be played by the Cooperative's leadership, management, and members in driving mutual growth for AFPFC MPC.

"We stay committed to our shared vision, to work together toward our ultimate goal of continued growth, success, and sustainability of our Cooperative; for our more than 43,500 members."

Following the formal commencement of the general assembly, AFPFC MPC Chairman

MGEN RIZALDO B LIMOSO AFP (Ret) subsequently gave his Chairman's Message.

In his speech, he underscored the significant milestones achieved by AFPFC MPC through its strategic initiatives launched in 2024.

Chairman Limoso highlighted the significant milestone in extending AFPFC MPC's services to personnel of the Bureau of Fire Protection and the employees of the Philippine Veterans Affairs Office, the opening of three new satellite offices in Visayas, and sustained growth and expansion efforts of the Cooperative.

He also reiterated the importance of members' involvement in fostering Cooperative growth, with him saying, "May the core values of our Cooperative bring us together with a dedication to all contribute to the progress of AFPFC MPC."

"In this, I trust that we will all be able to forge a path ahead built on the prevailing principle of our Cooperative: Bringing Better Benefits," Chairman Limoso further added.

During the ARGAMEO, members were updated on the accomplishment reports of the Oversight Committees and management respectively.

Through the successful completion of the ARGAMEO, AFPFC MPC reaffirms its dedication to another year of future-facing growth, success, and improved member benefits. AFPFC MPC looks forward to building on its achievements to bring greater mutual value to its members and communities.

New set of Coop officers elected

A new set of Members of the Board of Directors were elected during the AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative (AFPFC MPC) Annual Regular General Assembly and Election of Officers (ARGAMEO) last March 14, 2025.

Ms. Minda S Bondoc, CAPT DANILO A MEMBRERE PN (Ret), and COL FELIPE P VICENCIO PAF (Ret), were re-elected into their positions as Members of the Board, with COL RONALDO A FRIGAL PA (Ret), who previously served as AFPFC MPC's

General Manager, was elected as a new director.

During the ARGAMEO, members voted on the open positions for the Members of the Board of Directors and the slots available for the Election Committee and the Audit and Inventory Committee.

Ms. Anita F Caramillo, Ms. Liza R Gubatan, and Ms. Lolita Pacao were elected as the new officers of the Audit and Inventory Committee.

While Mr. Bobby Sobrevega, as the sole candidate, won the single slot open for the Election Committee by default.

The Cooperative has full trust that the newly-promulgated officers will lead the way towards AFPFC MPC's success, and will sustain the steps taken in the fulfillment of its vision to be the cooperative of choice for Filipinos.

Help desks positioned to bring AFPFC MPC closer to members

Three new Coop help desks to bolster service in Sablayan, Baguio, and Lucena

Demonstrating its dedication to bringing its services and benefits closer to its members, the AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative opened a total of three new help desks to serve its members this first quarter of 2025.

Recognizing the challenges of having limited access to AFPFC MPC Satellite Offices, the new help desks are strategically positioned to expand AFPFC MPC's service reach in select areas by extending Cooperative services to Kamay-Ari in their respective localities.

Through the help desks, Kamay-Ari are able to apply for new loans or loan renewals, update their membership status with AFPFC MPC, or ask general inquiries on the Cooperative's member services and benefits.

First to open was the Lucena Help Desk, addressed at the Old AFPSLAI Building at Southern Luzon Command, Camp Guillermo Nakar, Gulang-Gulang Lucena City.

The Baguio Help Desk at PMA, opened on February 11, 2025

Following the opening of the Lucena Help Desk, AFPFC MPC opened the PMA Baguio Help Desk located at the 4th FSU, Lim Hall, Camp Gregorio Del Pilar, Philippine Military Academy, Baguio City, Benguet.

Lastly, the Sablayan Help Desk also started its operations at the HR Office, Sablayan Prison and Penal Farm, Sablayan, Occidental Mindoro.

The Sablayan Help Desk, opened on February 20, 2025

Placed in strategic locations, the three new help desks serve as an alternate means for Kamay-Ari to transact with AFPFC MPC.

The Cooperative also has two other help desk locations at the AFP GHQ and BuCor HQ, New Bilibid Prison for convenient access to AFPFC MPC services and benefits. Kamay-Ari may visit these help desks at the AFP Finance Center Compound, Guido Avenue, Camp Aguinaldo, Quezon City, and Bureau of Corrections, New Bilibid Prison Reservation, Muntinlupa City respectively.

To further establish its service presence throughout the country, AFPFC MPC is schedule to open more help desks within the year.

OTS personnel now have access to better benefits

OTS welcomed as newest Kamay-Ari

The AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative (AFPFC MPC) officially adds the Office for Transportation Security (OTS) to the roster of AFPFC MPC's newest Kamay-Ari in a Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) signing ceremony held last, February 4, 2025, at the OTS office located in Pasay City.

The MOA signing marks a significant milestone in the broadened reach of AFPFC MPC to more offices, allowing OTS personnel to now access the Cooperative's products and benefits.

The signing ceremony was led by AFPFC MPC Chairman MGEN RIZALDO LIMOSO AFP (Ret) and OTS Administrator

Undersecretary Crizaldo Nieves, together with AFPFC MPC Vice Chairman COL FELIPE VICENCIO PAF (Ret) and OTS Assistant Secretary Jose Briones Jr.

Also present were the AFPFC MPC Board of Directors along with OTS leadership officials.

Chairman Limoso spoke about his enthusiasm in welcoming the OTS into the AFPFC MPC family, "This partnership is the manifestation of our mutual dedication, desire, and vision for a deepened relationship for our shared growth.

It brings to fruition the efforts taken to welcome the OTS as our new Kamay-Ari—with the dedication to bring you the better benefits you deserve.”

Expressing his anticipation of the positive impact the partnership will have on OTS personnel, Usec. Nieves shared, “It is about the forging of a partnership to support and uplift the morale and the welfare of the dedicated personnel of the OTS.”

As a symbol of goodwill for the new partnership with OTS, AFPFC MPC also donated office equipment during the signing ceremony.

The AFPFC MPC is delighted to have the OTS as its new Kamay-Ari and looks forward to a fruitful partnership positively impacting more members now within its reach.

Improved benefits accessibility for Kamay-Ari

Muntinlupa office opens as newest AFPFC MPC NCR location

In continued fulfillment of its commitment to expanded accessibility, the AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative (AFPFC MPC) officially opened its newest satellite office (SO) in Muntinlupa City on March 11, 2025.

Addressed at Unit 2, Ground Floor, TSP Bldg V, Katihan St, Poblacion, Muntinlupa City, the Muntinlupa SO is strategically positioned to cater to AFPFC MPC Kamay-Ari living in Muntinlupa and neighboring municipalities.

“Ang purpose namin dito ay isabuhay ang ating adhikain: to Bring Better Benefits sa ating mga miyembro. And if we are going to do that, we need to have a satellite office malapit kung nasaan nakatira ang ating mga miyembro.”

Chairman Limoso with CTCSUPT Marquez during the ribbon-cutting

The opening ceremony was led by the AFPFC MPC Chairman of the Board, MGEN RIZALDO B LIMOSO AFP (Ret), and Members of the Board, with Guest of Honor, Office of the Director General Head Executive Assistant CTCSUPT MARIA FE R MARQUEZ.

After a brief program and the formal blessing of the Muntinlupa SO by Fr. Perfecto Abellana, Chairman Limoso spoke about the improved member accessibility of AFPFC MPC benefits and services through the newly opened office.

CTCSUPT MARQUEZ congratulated AFPFC MPC on opening the Muntinlupa office, “Malugod po namin kayong binabati sa pagbukas ng inyong bagong opisina.” She further remarked, “We welcome you here to be part of the progress and development in Muntinlupa City.”

The Cooperative is slated to launch more new satellite offices and help desks across the country as part of its ongoing expansion.

Courtesy visits to PMA and NSC made

Cooperative continues relationship-building efforts

The AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative (AFPFC MPC) continues to reinforce the Cooperative's relations and ties through courtesy visits with the National Security Council (NSC) and the Philippine Military Academy (PMA) this First Quarter of 2025.

AFPFC MPC joins the 2025 IYC launch

On January 31, 2025, more than 100 representatives of the AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative came together at the Quezon City Memorial Circle to show their support for the national launch of the 2025 International Year of Cooperatives (IYC).

With the theme "Cooperatives Build a Better World," the launch aims to showcase the positive changes enabled by cooperatives in their respective communities. The event seeks to raise awareness of cooperatives, promote pro-cooperative policies, foster partnerships, and encourage youth involvement. The AFPFC MPC representatives are joined by 3,000-strong attendees coming from various cooperatives nationwide.

Quezon City Mayor Joy Belmonte opened the celebration, recognizing the role of cooperatives in creating lasting impact to their stakeholders. "It proves that social entrepreneurship is a transformative tool changing the lives of our citizens for the better," Mayor Belmonte declared.

Asec. Myrla Paradillo of the Cooperative Development Authority and National Alliance for Cooperatives President MGEN

GILBERT LLANTO (Ret), delivered their solidarity messages underscoring the people-centered change driven by cooperatives all over the country.

Last January 13, 2025, the AFP Pension and Gratuity Management Center (AFP PGMC) officially blessed and inaugurated its newly renovated Commander's Lounge and Conference Room.

The construction of the AFP PGMC Conference Room was completed through the generous support of the AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative (AFPFC MPC) as part of its community development initiatives.

Attending as Guest of Honors were AFPFC MPC Chairman MGEN RIZALDO B LIMOSO AFP (Ret) and AFPSLAI President and CEO

RADM NICHOLS A DRIZ PN (Ret) with AFPFC MPC Members of the Board present.

During the ribbon cutting ceremony and marker unveiling, Chairman Limoso emphasized the importance of supporting the AFP PGMC as one of its partners in providing services to AFP pensioners.

AFP PGMC Chief BGEN JOSELITO T LOPEÑA PAF delivered a message of gratitude while AFP PGMC Executive Officer LTC ERICKSON A CARCIDO (ARM) PA gave the welcoming remarks.

The new facility featuring modern meeting equipment such as conference microphones, speakers, and a high-definition projector were blessed by Fr. LTC MANUEL W TABIOS CHS (GSC).

Promoting proper dental hygiene among students

Donated dental kits to support students' oral health

The AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative (AFPFC MPC) distributed 399 dental kits to students at Air Force City Elementary School (AFCES) in Clark, Pampanga last February 5, 2025.

AFCES students with their donated dental kits

As part of AFPFC MPC's ongoing community development initiatives, the donated dental kits—complete with toothbrushes and toothpaste—seek to promote sustainable oral hygiene habits among the students of AFCES.

Distributed in partnership with the 1309th Philippine Air Force (PAF) Dental Dispensary, the donation activity also featured a lecture demonstrating proper oral hygiene by CPT MICHAEL ANGELO BONIFACIO DS.

Following the donation, a gift-giving activity from AFPFC MPC was also received by Mr. Angelito B. Garcia, AFCES Teacher with representatives from the 1309th PAF Dental Dispensary.

IP students in Sablayan receive hygiene kits

With its commitment to community service for Indigenous People and vulnerable sectors, the AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative (AFPFC MPC) distributed 125 dental hygiene kits to the IP students of Libagon Minority School in Sablayan, Occidental Mindoro, last February 20, 2025.

Trainees asking questions during the financial seminar

Newly-minted graduates of the Sablayan Prison and Penal Farm (SPPF) in Occidental Mindoro attended a financial literacy seminar held by the AFP Finance Center Multipurpose Cooperative (AFPFC MPC) this February 21, 2025.

With the theme "FUNincial LiterEASY," the financial literacy seminar was attended by 77 graduates of SPPF, empowering them with the necessary skills and knowledge on prudently managing their finances as they enter their work with the Bureau of Corrections.

The seminar, titled "How to Lock-In Financial Peace of Mind," was led by Mr. Jake Abatayo, CPA, President of the Philippine Institute of Certified Accountants of Oriental Mindoro. There, seminar attendees learned key ideas on building necessary financial foundations, managing cash flows, and pointers on debt management.

Encapsulating the essence of prudent financial management, Mr. Abatayo emphasized to the graduates, "To save is to spend by spending money at the right time and at the right moment."
